Triple Cross Church Update

Howdy Folks,

I hope all is well with you and the blessings of the Lord continue to sustain all your work. We have had an exciting spring at Triple Cross. Our weekly bible study continues to grow as we engage in intentional scripture study around what it means to be a Christian leader in the world. As a reminder, anyone who would like to join in with us is more than welcome. We have a meal together around 6:30 and then move into study around 7:10. Bring your bible and a dish as we would love to see you.

The Triple Cross Rodeo for the spring was originally scheduled for May 4th & 5th had to be postponed due to poor weather and so we were able to get it in on May 14th & 15th. It was another good turnout both in terms of participants and spectators. As always, we held church on Sunday morning during the weekend and had 20 folks come for a time of worship. We would also like to extend a hardy THANK YOU to Harrodsburg United Methodist Men for providing concessions throughout the weekend and to all who came over to fellowship with and support the youth rodeo events.

The next scheduled event Triple Cross will be a part of will is the Lexington Stock Dog Trials held up at the horse park on May 20-22. Some of us will be working during the weekend and we will be leading a worship service on Sunday morning also. We would welcome your prayers for this opportunity to engage other friends with the gospel of Christ.

Thank you for all you do to make Triple Cross Fellowship possible. Bless you.

Godspeed,

Andrew Gregg

REPORT ON THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH MAY 18, 2016

The United Methodist Church (UMC) took a major step toward a possible reorganization on Wednesday, May 18, 2016, creating a commission to decide whether the largest American mainline Christian denomination should restructure so it can ordain LGBT people and allow pastors to officiate same-sex marriages.

The announcement came as thousands of Methodists gathered in Portland Oregon for the UMC's General Conference, an event held every four years where leaders debate and vote on matters of church governance. This year the most anticipated topic of discussion has been LGBT issues – a massive point of contention for the church, whose official Book of Discipline currently condemns homosexuality and prohibits the ordination of “self-avowed practicing homosexuals.”

More than 100 overtures regarding sexuality were proposed for the conference but pro-LGBT activists say everything ground to a halt when news broke that bishops have been meeting for months to discern whether the church should find a new structure – or even potentially a schism – to grant bishops the ability to institute LGBT – friendly policies within their areas of responsibility. Bishops initially denied that they had met on the topic, but introduced a measure on Wednesday morning that would create a commission to decide whether to restructure the church and usher in various levels of LGBT equality.

The motion would table all other votes regarding sexuality at the conference, but empower the commission to call a special emergency conference whenever it reached a decision – something that has never happened in UMC history.

On Wednesday evening – after a lengthy and contentious back-and-forth regarding parliamentary procedure – the conference voted 428 to 405 to adopt the measure. Supporters of equality were unsure of how to interpret the vote, which maintains the status quo but opens the potential for dramatic change in the coming years.

This historic action by the Council of Bishops (COB) represents a significant institutional shift in the direction of inclusion and equality. This is the first time the COB has put their collective voice around the urgent cries for change and acceptance.

We call on the Council to act quickly and deliberately and to lead the church as promised. We pray that God's perfect will become a reality in their decision.

UMCOR is a ministry of The United Methodist Church through the General Board of Global Ministries, and our goal is to assist the most vulnerable persons affected by crisis or chronic need without regard to their race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation. We believe all people have God-given worth and dignity.

UMCOR's work reaches people in more than 80 countries, including the United States. We provide humanitarian relief when war, conflict, or natural disaster disrupt life to such an extent that communities are unable to recover on their own.

While UMCOR cooperates with other aid organizations to extend our reach, our most important partners are the people we serve. We are confident that successful solutions to emergency or chronic conditions begin with the affected population. UMCOR provides these survivors not only temporary relief but long-term education, training, and support.
